

Summer 2016

Sessions II: July 05 – August 12 (MTWRF, 9-10:15am)

---

POLS 390: Political Inquiry & Analysis (WI)

Power of Wonder & Economy of Writing

ARE

Critical for your future career and studies

A hands-on course with WI focus. You will learn:

- how to conduct research by actually “doing” it, not by ‘reading’ the text
  - pick research topic of your interest
  - formulate research questions
  - collect data, and analyze them
- compile them into a paper

Recommended if you are:

- curious and open-minded ☺
- planning to apply for graduate school (any program) in the future

No textbooks required - save money!

- All the class materials will be provided on Lulima or in class
- Scholarships available through Outreach (outreach.hawaii.edu/summer/students/current.asp)

Why take Summer classes?

Less students enrolled → more focus on you!

Finishing required courses early → can take more Fall/Spring courses

INSTRUCTOR: Noriko SHIRATORI

Email me at nshirato@hawaii.edu

for any questions or want a copy of the syllabus

Registration open from March 1st